

Mitsui India is expanding its scope to cater to electrical/ white goods segment. As the demand for cheap durables is increasing at an alarming rate, there is a race among white goods industry to supply attractive looking, cheap and durable products which are light in weight. The light weight concept and esthetics are driving the usage of plastics raw materials in this segment. We are actively promoting our products to replace glass, ceramics, metals etc.